

Job Description

Title: CRYO TECHNICIAN

Classification: Non-Exempt, Full Time, 1st Shift, 2nd Shift or 3rd Shift

Prepared By: Human Resources

Reports to: Cryo Manager

Education Requirements: High School Diploma or GED

Experience/Qualifications:

- Delicate, intricate, small part work requiring high attention to detail.
- Good hand dexterity and ability to have hands in cold working conditions for long durations
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to sit for long periods of time

Summary of Position:

Perform in an accurate and timely manner the sectioning and sacrificing of various tissue types for substrate slides reporting directly to the Cryo Manager.

Job Duties/Key Responsibilities:

1. Sectioning of all tissue types for substrate slides
2. Sacrifice of laboratory animals (Mice, Rats, Guinea Pigs, etc.) in humane manner
3. Dissection of animal and removal of particular organs, tissue preparation, and proper storage of tissue with minimal waste
4. Preliminary evaluation of cryosectioned substrate slides
5. Fixation, labeling and packaging of all cryosectioned substrate slides
6. Maintenance of all equipment used by Cryosectioning group
7. Adherence to quality systems with special regard to ISO 9000/13485 and GMP / OSHA compliance
8. Required to meet daily production quotas and pass required number of lots through Quality Control
9. Maintain the chart recorder on the -85degree C freezer and temperature humidity recorder
10. General lab cleaning and maintenance activities as required
11. Accurately complete daily manufacturing record and necessary paperwork
12. Will be cross-trained for positions in other departments as needed
13. Projects or other duties as assigned by the Cryo Manager and/or Immco

To request additional information regarding the position, please send all inquiries to HR@immco.com

To be considered as a candidate for the position, please submit a resume, letter of interest, references and salary expectations to HR@immco.com